

Our people remains the most important resource, most of these loyal people stayed since the inception of the company, all dedicated, willing and able to render quality service to meet customer satisfaction. And because the company realizes that ever changing needs of our customer, we continuously keep our people abreast with the changing times by giving them the appropriate training and dedication to hone their skills which form our core competencies in delivering efficient services for our ever increasing roster of clientele. (Cris P. Opetina / Danny V. Amora)

DYARYONG PINOY
March 7 - 15, 2010